NIGHT RIDERS

Fire One Hundred Bullets Into Farmer's Bedroom.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 9.—A band of one hundred masked night riders surrounded the residence of A. J. Ladd, a Christian county farmer, and fired over a hundred bullets into the bedroom in which Mr. Ladd and seven children were hiding after Ladd had been called to the door.

He was taken to the tobacco barn and told that it would be burned to-night if he failed to join the association.

The farms of J. M. Crowe and Oscar Smiley were also visited, their tobacco plants destroyed and the owners warned to join the association. Word was sent to Magistrate John Rogers that his store would be burned if he failed to enter the farmers' organization.

All the persons warned have signed the pledges of the association.

DRIVEN AWAY BY TAXATION

Very Large Capital Withdrawn From Kentucky.

The Case of the Walsh Estate In Lexington Points Out a Dangerous Result of Our Tax System.

The manner in which the tax system of Kentucky may seriously affect its business interests was recently given a very striking demonstration in Lexington. The estate of Mrs. Clara Bell Walsh, amounting to about $750,000, had been for many years managed by the Security Trust company of Lexington, as trustee. A petition was filed recently in the Fayette circuit court, asking the court to terminate the trusteeship, so that Mrs. Walsh might put her property in the hands of a trust company in St. Louis. The Security Trust company, which had been acting as trustee, did not oppose this suit, it being distinctly stated in the petition of Mrs. Walsh that the services of the trust company had been in every way satisfactory, but that the taxes imposed upon her property were too burdensome.

The peculiar feature of the case lies in the fact that Mrs. Walsh, herself, resides in St. Louis and, therefore, claims that her personal property should not be taxed at Lexington in the hands of her trustee. The court of appeals having held otherwise, and Mrs. Walsh, not feeling justified in paying a tax rate of $2.70 on the stocks, bonds and other investments in the hands of the Kentucky trustee, since she could not derive any possible good from the payment of this tax, decided to remove the property to the state of her residence.

A considerable part of the estate was invested in local securities—the bonds of local corporations and real estate mortgages. This will mean that the money will gradually be withdrawn from investment in these local securities and reinvested by the St. Louis trustee in other securities, thus constituting a loss of that much money to enterprise in and around Lexington and Fayette county. It means just that much greater scarcity of needed capital.

The Lexington Herald has been, with great energy and skill, showing the result of this sort of taxation on the business interests of the state. It points out, among other things, the inconsistency in the decisions of our courts, which hold that a man who lives in one Kentucky county and has intangible personal property, such as stocks, bonds, or money, in the hands of a trustee in another county of Kentucky, must pay the tax in the county of his residence and not in the county where the trustee resides; but if the owner of the property moves entirely out of the state, then he must pay a tax in the county where the trustee resides, as well as pay the tax in the state where he takes up his new residence, thus constituting double taxation.

Consumed With Taxation.

In her petition, asking for the change in trusteeship, Mrs. Walsh says: "Plaintiffs desire, if said Clara Bell Walsh be not entitled to a discharge of the trustee, that there be a change in the person of said trustee, and if it can be done that the funds and property in trust be transferred to a trustee duly qualified under and resident in the state of Missouri, where they have their home. Plaintiffs state that the reasons why a change of trustee is desired do not in any manner relate to the conduct or fidelity of said trustee, but are on account of the heavy burdens of taxation imposed on said estate by reason of the residence of the trustee in a state and city different from the home of the beneficiary."

Court of Appeals Decision.

The Herald adds the following fact as to the case: "Under this decision of the court, Mrs. Walsh's personal property in the hands of the Security Trust company would be liable for city, state and county taxes here; and realizing that she, a non-resident of the state, could derive no possible benefit from taxes paid to the city on her personal property, Mrs. Walsh takes this means of getting possession of her property. The removal of the estate to another state is a powerful argument against the wisdom of the system of taxation in force in Kentucky; for though the investments made by the trustee in local securities are so safe and highly regarded as to be retained, yet when a reinvestment is made it is likely that a large portion of the funds will be invested elsewhere, thus depriving this community and state of so much badly needed capital for its progress and development."

Poverty or Perjury.

"A prominent attorney of this city, in discussing before the Taxation Committee of the Kentucky senate in 1905 the tax system of our state, denounced our personal property tax as necessarily leading either to poverty or perjury. We do not know whether any statistics on the subject are available, but we think it a safe guess that at least three-fourths of all the intangible personal property, such as bonds, notes, and cash, which is assessed for taxation in Kentucky, is in the hands of fiduciaries. Is it a fair and manly thing to place upon those, least able to bear it nearly all the burden of such a tax?"

Mere Man.

A man's life is full of crosses and temptations.

When he is little, the big girls kiss him; but when he is grown the little girls kiss him.

If he is poor, he is a bad manager, if he is rich he is dishonest.

If he needs credit, he can't get it; if he is prosperous everyone wants to do him a favor.

If he's in politics it's for pie; if he's out of politics you can't place him and he's no good for his country. If he doesn't give to charity, he is a stingy cuss; if he does, it is for show.

If he is actively religious he is a hypocrite; if he takes no interest in religion he is a hardened sinner.

If he shows affection, he is a soft specimen; if he seems to care for no one, he is cold-blooded.

If he dies young, there was a great future ahead of him; if he lives to an old age, he has missed his calling.—Benton Tribune.

A HOUSE-WARMING.

NEW HOME OF THE KENTUCKY
STATE FAIR.

DESTINED TO BECOME GREAT.

Many Advantages Offered Exhibitors and Visitors—A Brief Description.

Housewarmings are as old as Kentucky. When Daniel Boone built the first log cabin of the Commonwealth that has passed its 115th anniversary, he brought other Virginians to christen it with the warmth of a hospitality that was destined to become proverbial and whose fame was to know no bounds. That was a meager housewarming. The State Board of Agriculture invites all citizens of Kentucky and adjoining states and everyone else who is interested to a housewarming of the new home of the Kentucky State Fair in Louisville, September 16 to 21. Where Boone invited a few friends to a small hut made of beeches, the Board of Agriculture extends an invitation to a score of buildings, into many rooms of which the Boone log hut would set snugly, and to grounds having an expanse running beyond 125 acres.

When the General Assembly created the State Fair and lodged its future with the State Board of Agriculture, it gave to that Board authority to purchase grounds and buildings. Louisville and Jefferson county appropriated and subscribed through its citizens, $165,000. After months of endeavor the Board closed negotiations with the Douglas Park Jockey Club for a racing plant that had just been completed, taking over 129 acres of ground and improvements in buildings, macadam roads, track, drainage, fencing, etc., worth more than $200,000, and which are both new and modern.

The grounds and buildings were valued at $300,000, but the Board of Agriculture secured them for $275,000, paying $165,000 down and going in debt for the remaining $110,000. It will, of course, be necessary in the future to erect additional buildings for exhibition purposes, an amphitheater, etc., but at the present time the wants of the State Fair are fully met in what it has. The all-steel and concrete grand stand is one of the best ever constructed in this country, while the stables, both for the purpose of exhibition and for stalls, are most excellently erected. In the mile track, the State Fair has what is acknowledged to be the fastest exhibition track in this country. Having been used many years ago for trotting meetings, large trees are to be found here and there on the grounds, while grass grows luxuriantly throughout.

The transportation facilities, both steam and electric, are adequate and very desirable. The grounds are located on the main line of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad, which has a switch running the full length of one side, giving to exhibitors, whether of live stock, agricultural implements, or the products of the farm, everything desired in this direction, and such conditions means great advantage to the exhibitor.

To take care of the immense crowds expected to attend the Fair, the street railway company operates a fast line over double tracks direct to the entrance, and has a loop on which to store 100 cars at a time. Only twenty-five minutes are consumed in the trip from the heart of the city to the entrance. Situated on a well-kept boulevard that intersects the Grand Boulevard of Louisville, the grounds are most accessible to carriages and automobiles.

The State Board of Agriculture has been congratulated upon the wisdom it displayed in buying these grounds and buildings. If an unimproved tract had been purchased, it would have been impossible to complete buildings in time to hold either this year's or the 1908 Fair on it. This would have necessitated the renting either of the place that has been bought, or Churchill Downs, an outlay of no small proportions. By getting Douglas Park, there will be a steady income from rents of stalls to owners of trotters and pacers who wish to use the track for training purposes. Furthermore, the Board is in complete control of the grounds and has already gone on record as prohibiting pool betting or gambling of any kind, and the sale of spirituous, vinous or malt liquors.

The Kentucky State Fair offers to the breeder of all kinds of live stock an excellent opportunity to bring his stock to the public's attention in a way that no other occasion offers. If he is fortunate a purchaser he will find at the State Fair many persons in the market for just such stock as he may wish to show or sell. This gives him the chance of getting premiums as well as the best price for his stock.

It is the purpose of the State Board of Agriculture to make of the Kentucky State Fair an educational institution with exhibits not only of live stock and agricultural and horticultural resources, but displays from the forests, mines and mills.

In Nashville, Tenn., a popular musical organization with fifty all-star artists, the Kentucky State Fair will have a program that should prove a great drawing card. Three concerts are to be given daily on the grand stand.

Weak Kidneys

Weak Kidneys, surely point to weak kidneys. Nerves. The Kidneys, like the Heart, and the Stomach, find their weakness, not in the organs itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the Kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak, if the urine scalds, or is dark and strong, if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month—Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.
